10th December 1994

Dear Neighbour,

You may have heard that we have lodged a Challenge in the High Court against the decision by Mr. Gummer (Secretary of State for the Environment) to allow the establishment of the Barnet Eruv.

Our main reason for the challenge is that we object to the side and front of our house being used as part of the Eruv boundary, without our consent. You may not be aware that as a resident of Cricklewood Lane or Hermitage Lane your house front would also be used for the same purpose. We believe that this use of houses without consent is a violation of civil rights.

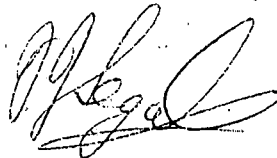

Other Eruvs are planned for different parts of the country, and we are bringing this case not only on behalf of ourselves and the local community, but also to uphold citizens' rights nationally.

Legal actions are very expensive, and an Eruv Challenge Fund has been set up by the long established National Secular Society to help meet the costs of the case. We hope you will make a contribution to the fund to help us overturn Mr. Gummer's decision. The form below is for your optional use. (Any surplus in the Fund after the case will be donated to UNICEF.)

Hoping for your support, yours sincerely,

Elizabeth and Jeffrey Segall
