Dear Sirs,

RE: SEGALL -v- THE SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE ENVIRONMENT and THE UNITED SYNAGOGUE
ERUV COMMITTEE

Dr Segall has now decided to withdraw the original Notice of Motion.

Dr Segall has requested us to pass on to your clients his appreciation and gratitude that they will not seek payment of their costs against him in all the circumstances. We are pleased to inform you that we have been informed by the Treasury Solicitor that the Secretary of State will also not seek any costs against Dr Segall. We have faxed a letter to the Crown Office informing them that the Notice of Motion is withdrawn.

We enclose a form of Withdrawal of Notice of Motion and suggest that this is signed on behalf of your client and faxed over to Mr A J Sandal, Assistant Treasury Solicitor, for signature and onward transmission to the Crown Office.

We thank you for your kind assistance in this matter.

Yours faithfully,

For name & S.
