Albert W. Wallis
Corporation Counsel

December 3, 1993

Dear Lord Jakobovits,

It is my understanding that you have inquired about any legal problems associated with the recent creation of an Aruv in the City of Boston. As Corporation Counsel to the City of Boston, I am the City's chief legal officer. Please be advised that consideration was given to the potential for legal liability on the City's part in creating the Aruv and it was concluded that no serious liability claims could be foreseen. Since its creation, in fact, there have been no municipal legal problems associated with it of which I am aware.

Sincerely,

Albert W. Wallis
