The Inspector
Eruv Public Inquiry
Barnet Town Hall
The Burroughs
Hendon

6th December 1993

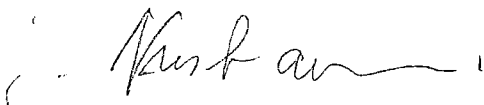

Dear Sir,

I understand that questions were raised at the inquiry on Friday concerning my evidence and whether it was correct. I presume my integrity was not in doubt.

I can categorically state that I cannot propel myself outside my own home without assistance from my husband, Alan, or another person. This is the same as many if not all wheelchair-bound persons. Therefore I, and they, cannot attend synagogue on the sabbath or get out of their homes. My Rabbi has never permitted me to do so as I believe was suggested.

I remind the inquiry that I could not even get to my synagogue, 100 yards away, on the special sabbath recently for the celebration prior to my son's wedding, when as a bridegroom he was called to the Reading of the Law.

Your sincerely,

Julia Annie Nussbaum
