The Second Schedule before referred to

1. (1) Where the licensee proposes -
 - (a) to cease using or abandon the Apparatus, or
 - (b) to part with its interest in the Apparatus, it shall give the Corporation at least six weeks' notice before doing so

2. (1) The Corporation may by notice in writing served on the licensee withdraw this Licence -
 - (a) if the licensee fails to comply with any condition of this Licence,
 - (b) if the Corporation become aware that the licensee -
 - (i) has ceased to use or has abandoned the Apparatus, or intends to do so, or
 - (ii) has parted with or intends to part with its interest in the Apparatus, or
 - (c) if the Corporation consider the withdrawal of this Licence is necessary for the purpose of the exercise of their functions as street authority.
- (2) The withdrawal takes effect at the end of such period beginning with the date of service as may be specified in the notice.
 The period shall not be less than seven working days in the case of a withdrawal under sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b), and shall not be less than three months in the case of a withdrawal under sub-paragraph (1)(c).
- (3) If the licensee remedies the breach or action occasioning such notice or clause 3(2) of this Schedule applies before expiry of the notice then the Corporation shall withdraw the notice
3. (1) Where this Licence expires or is withdrawn or surrendered, the Corporation may remove the Apparatus or alter it in such manner as they think fit and reinstate the street, and may recover from the former licensee the expenses incurred by them in doing so.
- (2) If they are satisfied that the former licensee can, within such reasonable time as they may specify, remove the Apparatus or alter it in such manner as they may require and reinstate the street, they may authorise it to do so at its own expense.

(3) Before executing any works under this paragraph the Corporation or the former licensee, as the case may be, shall give not less than seven working days' notice to any person whose apparatus is likely to be affected and shall satisfy their requirements as to the method of executing the works and as to the supervision of the works by them

(4) In this paragraph and paragraph 4. below "the former licensee" means the person who immediately before the expiry, withdrawal or surrender of this Licence was the licensee

4. (1) The licensee shall indemnify the Corporation against any claim in respect of injury, damage or loss arising out of -

(a) the placing or presence in the street of the Apparatus, or

(b) the execution by any person of any works authorised by this Licence;

and the former licensee shall indemnify the Corporation against any claim in respect of injury, damage or loss arising out of the execution by the Corporation or the licensee of any works under paragraph 3.

(2) The liability of the licensee or former licensee under this paragraph arises -

(a) whether or not the damage or loss is attributable to negligence on their part or on the part of any person for whom they are responsible, and

(b) notwithstanding that they are acting in pursuance of a statutory duty

(3) However, their liability does not extend to damage or loss which is attributable to misconduct or negligence on the part of -

- (a) the Corporation or a person for whom the Corporation are responsible, or
 - (b) a third party, that is, a person for whom neither the licensee or former licensee nor the Corporation are responsible
- (4) For the purposes of this paragraph the persons for whom a person is responsible are his contractors and any person in his employ or that of his contractors
- (5) Provided always that the Corporation shall forthwith notify the licensee in writing of any such claim, charges, costs, expenses, damages or losses hereinbefore referred to and shall not settle or pay any such without prior consultation with the licensee

The Third Schedule before referred to

1. The licensee shall procure that there is and remains in full force and effect throughout each year of the term of this Licence a performance guarantee in favour of the Corporation given by a guarantor acceptable to the Corporation such guarantee to be in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule to this Licence or in such other form as the Corporation may approve PROVIDED THAT the principal amount or amounts in aggregate for which the guarantor shall be liable under the terms of any such guarantee ("the principal amount") shall be determined as follows:-

- 1.1 The principal amount of the guarantee for the first year of the term of this Licence ("the first year") shall be £10,000

- 1.2 The principal amount of the guarantee for the second year of the said term ("the second year") shall be such sum ("the first revised sum") as shall be notified in writing to the licensee by the Corporation at least one month before the end of the first year
- 1.3 The principal amount of the guarantee for the third year of the said term ("the third year") shall be such sum ("the second revised sum") as shall be notified in writing to the licensee by the Corporation at least one month before the end of the second year.
2. If the licensee shall be unable to procure in respect of either or both of the second year and the third year a guarantee in the full amount of the first revised sum or the second revised sum as the case may be the licensee shall procure a guarantee for a principal amount of not less than £10,000 and shall deposit with the Corporation on or before the first day of the second year or the third year as the case may be such sum as shall be equivalent to the difference between the principal amount of the guarantee procured in respect of that year and the first revised sum or the second revised sum as the case may be
3. The licensee shall procure that forthwith upon the occasion of any payment to the Corporation by the guarantor pursuant to the guarantee the guarantor shall restore its maximum liability under the guarantee to the principal amount PROVIDED THAT if the licensee shall on any such occasion be unable to procure such restoration the licensee shall forthwith on such occasion deposit with the Corporation such sum as shall be equivalent to the amount of the payment concerned

4. The Corporation may at any time or times reimburse itself out of such sum or sums as shall have been deposited with it by the licensee pursuant to the provisions of this Schedule:-

- 4.1 in respect of any costs and expenses incurred by it and repayable by or recoverable from the licensee or the former licensee (a) pursuant to the provisions of this Licence and/or (b) under the 1991 Act and/or (c) otherwise and;

- 4.2 in respect of its costs and expenses incurred in administering the provisions of this Schedule

5. The licensee shall on demand deposit with the Corporation such sum or sums as shall be equivalent to any sum or sums for which the Corporation shall have reimbursed itself pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 4 hereof to the intent that the Corporation shall always have recourse to funds secured by the guarantee and/or deposited by the licensee with the Corporation all which funds shall in aggregate be equivalent to the principal amount applicable from time to time in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 1 of this Schedule

6. If the licensee shall fail to comply with any provision of this Schedule the Corporation may by notice in writing served on the licensee withdraw this

Licence and such withdrawal shall take effect at the end of the period of 3 working days beginning with the date of service of such notice.

The Fourth Schedule before referred to
