I set out below a summary of my telephone conversations with David and Michael Goldmeier and some additional thoughts.

Barbara Langstone

1. Michael Goldmeier suggests that, if it could be arranged, Freddie Fisher should be approached to lobby Barbara Langstone. I would be happy to discuss this with Michael Goldblatt who is of course Freddie Fisher's co-warden. Please let me know if one of you would prefer to make this approach.
2. I suggest that David contact Henry Dony the gabbai of the Finchley Federation Shul to ask for his Shul's support with letter-writing and meeting with Barbara Langstone. Henry lives within the eruv as does a large part of the membership of the shul. I have passed copies of the material David has given to me to Mitchell Caller who is a board member of the shul. He is happy to help and will warm up Henry for an "official" approach. Henry's details are: 24 Claremont Park, London N3 1TH (346-5481).
3. Independently of the above we must find out (through Eva Greenspan?) which members of the Finchley Ward Conservative Party could be approached to and briefed to lobby Langstone.
4. Could a delegation of respected Finchley locals such as Lionel Shebson, Bernard Garbacz and others be organised into a delegation to lobby Langstone?
5. Apparently Barbara Langstone's husband was Margaret Thatcher's agent. Are we able to use this Thatcher connection?

Frank Davies

1. David will speak to Romie Tager about organising a delegation of Garden Suburb card-carrying Conservatives.
2. In addition to the Norrice Lea letter-writing campaign, I will endeavour to get a campaign organised among other Suburb residents.
3. I have asked a friend who is a member of Alyth Gardens to check whether he is a member there. If we can, we should also check Finchley and Hendon Reform and the Manor House (as well as Kinloss and Norrice Lea just in case to see whether there is a Jewish channel we can use to approach him.

Shuls

I will start off a letter-writing group among Bridge Lane and see what I can do amongst Rabbi Wilshansky's. David will organise Mazchikei Hadath and The Dayan's. I will explore the Lubavitch Suburb community through Rabbi Shlomo Levin.

Someone should ascertain whether the shuls of Rabbi Pinchas Rosenstein (Barnet) or Rabbi Yisroel Fine (Southgate) fall within Olwen Evans' ward (East Barnet). If so they should be approached for support in lobbying her.

It seems from the map that parts of the Norrice Lea or Finchley Federation membership live within St Paul's (Mike Freer) or East Finchley (Joan Ryan). The Hendon South and Finchley Conservative Associations should have access to precise boundary information.

Note also that much of Raleigh Close is within West Hendon and much of Dunstan Road is in Child's Hill.

Schools

I will contact Colin Richman who is a governor of North West and Paul Kreditor who is a governor of Kisharon. I have spoken to Margaret Rothem with reference to Hasmonean Girls but she did not consider a push among the parents there to be feasible.

General

I have spoken with Geoffrey Greenhouse who was a two term Barnet councillor and is the chairman of the Edgware Ward Conservative Association. Geoffrey's daytime telephone number is 490-3456. He would be happy to give lobbying advice if approached. Among the specific pointers he has given to me (in addition to much general advice) are the following:

- Herbert Goldsmith, chairman of Hendon South Conservative Association, is a member of Dunstan Road. I shall ask Michael
