

THE UNITED SYNAGOGUE
ERUV COMMITTEE

MEMO

FROM: David Schreiber
TO: Laurence Begner
Edward Black
Daniel Drukarz

18th February 1993

Meeting this evening, 18th February 1993 at 8.30 pm
at Laurence's home - 15 Manor Hall Avenue, London NW4

The meeting is called to review the running order for the presentation of our case on Wednesday night and to prepare in detail a brief for the councillors with whom we will meeting on Sunday morning at 9.00 am at my home, 61 Brampton Grove.

I have prepared and attach a draft outline suggesting that we use three councillors for the three areas. Each will need a more detailed brief and supporting material. May I ask you, Daniel, to focus with Edward on the planning issues. Julian will need a very specific brief from which to argue the case. Laurence, if you could please detail the need and support category for Eva Greenspan, I will work on the non-planning objections for Jack Cohen.

We do now have some interesting additional material - specifically, Rabbi Tony Bayfield's letter and that of Ralph Aron and we must consider tonight how this additional material is to be used to best effect. We should also consider our response to ITV News who are planning to cover the story on Monday night for News at Ten - Edward will bring us up to date.

I also enclose the running order for the presentation on Monday night which we should also review this afternoon.

See you later

David
