

THE UNITED SYNAGOGUE ERUV COMMITTEE

INTERNAL MEMORANDUM
TO	Dayan Ehrentreu, Rabbinical Panel Seymour Saideman, Elkan Levy, Jonathan Lew Jonathan Kestenbaum Committee Members
CC	Prof Eric Moonman, Alex Sklan Jonny Mendelsohn, Stuart Pollack
FROM	David Schreiber
DATE	25th November 1993
SUBJECT	Press Relations

This is the Press Release that will be distributed to national and local Press who have been tracking the Eruv story. It will also will be sent out in response to requests for information from other journalists.

Any enquiries from the Press must be directed in the first instance to Graham Murdoch of Fibbens Fox Associates who will deal with planning and technical issues. Any requests for more general information will be referred to Edward Black or myself.

May I please ask those concerned to ensure that the switchboard and staff at Woburn House and Stuart Young House are made aware of Graham's number and instructed accordingly.

It is essential that nobody else responds to the Press in any way other than to quote from this Press Release. I am sure you will all understand and appreciate the importance of this discipline.

In recent days we have been working intensively with our planning consultants and QC reviewing all the proofs of evidence and correspondence and they remain firmly confident in a positive outcome.

Please do attend and encourage others to do so. It is a public inquiry and we are advised that lack of attendance is taken as lack of interest and support.

I would respectfully ask the community Rabbis to announce this and suggest that particularly the women, disabled and older congregants should make a point of attending as much as possible.

The Inquiry takes place at Barnet Town Hall, the Burroughs from 10-1 and 2-5 on Tuesday and Thursday, from 10-1 and 6:30-9pm on Wednesday and 10-1:30pm on Friday.
